1. Following are WIS's answers to the questions listed in paragraph 2 of AKIA-19068:

- a. We are not contemplating mounting an operation against Subject from WIS. The information in EOMA-5772 was passed on mainly as information of general operational interest.
- b. With the exception of Franz Josef HURZL and Anton HARTMANN, both of whom were described in EOMA-5772, we have no leads to subject. Neither of these men is in direct contact with Subject.
- c. Our leads to Subject are not sufficient to justify mounting an operation from WIS; however, our leads might be of assistance to someone else mounting an operation against Subject.
- d. No operation has been initiated.

2. Since HARTMANN is an active police officer and HURZL is wanted by the German authorities, the BFI and BIFFER should not be informed of our contact with them.
